EDITORIAL GREETING.

The object of our jubilee paper is to bring the pupils and friends of the Illinois Female College into closer sympathy with the spirit and methods of work in the school at present, and to show something of what, in its fifty years of existence, it has accomplished for womanhood.

Glancing over the long alumnae list we see the names of many who have proven the foundation of their early work to have been broad and substantial. Many are the noble women who look back to the "old college" as their vantage ground of attainment. Under the stimulus of refining and helpful associations, and of those influences which quicken the mental and spiritual perceptions they have laid the sub-structure upon which they have built successfully through their after lives.

The best capital which any school can have is the enthusiastic support and loyalty of its former students, and surely we, of the Alumnae Association of the Illinois Female College, have such a heritage of pleasant memories that we should feel ourselves pledged to bring others under the same benign influences which we ourselves have enjoyed.

The habits of mind and the underlying principles of thought which have a controlling influence in life are determined during the formative period of student life; and the school which offers persistent stimulus in the right direction should be looked upon as the "good right hand" which will lift the growing mind and soul to that level of thought where the perception of realities is clear, and the purpose of mind becomes vigorous and sound.

If it is age and numbers which give prestige to an institution then Illinois Female College may present a record in which its friends may feel an honest pride. With an honorable showing in the past, it gives far greater promise for the future. Under the wise guidance of President Harker and his corps of scholarly instructors we would not place a limit upon the most sanguine expectations for the school.

In this year of our semi-centennial let all the Alumnae join hands in making our beloved Alma Mater more widely known and honored than ever before.

The College Societies.

The College Societies, Belles Lettres and Phi Nu, still live and are prospering. New books for the libraries—new members for encouragement—new motives for improvement—the motto of both.

The Societies are justly proud of their libraries. Old members are cordially invited to forge anew the chains which once bound them by the gift of new books.

The Phi Nu's boast a creditable collection of histories, and are making special effort to secure others.

Belles Lettres Officers.

Pres.—Miss Bertha Joy, '97.

Vice Pres.—Elizabeth Winterbottom.

Rec. Sec.—Miss Margaret Watson.

Cor. Sec.—Miss Linda Layton.

Treas.—Miss Mary Huntley.

Librarian—Miss Caroline Kuechler.

Chaplain—Miss Lela Smith.

Critic—Miss Lilian Davis.

Pages—Misses Grace Wharton, Dorothy Davis.

Sergeant at Arms—Miss Amy DeMotte, '97.

Mrs. Grubb, '52, (a Belles Lettres from the organization of the society,) early in November addressed the society on True Culture.

Officers of Phi Nu Society.

Pres.—Miss Emma Burnett, '97

Vice Pres.—Miss Lucinda Burnett, '97.

Rec. Sec.—Miss May Kenyon.

Cor. Sec.—Miss Edna Harley.

Critic—Miss Weldon.

Librarian—Miss Mande Harker.

Chorister—Miss Ila McClelland.

Chaplain—Miss Osa Mitchell

Prosecuting Attorney—Miss Sadie Vertrees.

Treas.—Miss Grace Wood.

A Society Hall is greatly needed. The Bands are working and some funds are in the treasury. Let every old member help a little.

Fortnightly recitals are a feature of the work of the College of Music.

Interesting and instructive talks at chapel hour have been given by Revs. Shepardson, R. G. Hobbs and I. W. Read, also S. W. Nichols and Mr. Gaston.

A College Course of Recitals and Readings by Faculty and advanced pupils, has furnished three delightful entertainments, and more are to follow.

* AULD LANG SYNE *

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days o' auld lang syne?"

From '52' to '97' our Alma Mater has been sending forth from its sheltering walls its yearly band of "sweet girl graduates" to take their place in the "drama" for which they have been so faithfully prepared, until quite an army of useful women (combining the societies' mottoes) are "scattering" in the busy scenes of life, wherever they may be called to play their part,—in the home maybe as wife and mother,—the "light" of love and christian patience, teaching by precept and example,—just such wives and mothers as Solomon says the heart of husband may safely trust in and children rise up and call blessed,—virtuous women filled with the soul inspiring precepts of the lowly Nazarene. Just such women as help to mold the characters of the great and good men and women of our glorious nation—of such our Alma Mater is dñly proud.

But there should come a time for the "home gathering" in all families,—a time for the renewing of "auld acquaintance" and ties, which although with some of us at least, many years have grown between, they are not forgotten or broken. And to bring up these dear memories of the past and to put heart in touch with heart, a reminiscence or a "looking backward" may more fully prepare us for the changes which time is faithfully and impartially recording and for the hoped for "jubilee reunion" to which we are fondly looking forward in the near future.

Although not superstitious we all feel anxious for a propitious beginning of things, and this first class of "52" fully satisfies in all respects. The shadow—death—has fallen upon this remarkably bright and energetic band of sisters, and eight "have entered into their rest." The seven who remain are among the most active and earnest workers in the interest of our college.

Mrs. Mary McElroy Griffith of Springfield, Illinois, and Mrs. Margaret Morrison Turley of this city are always ready and willing to respond to all calls of their Alma Mater while this class is honored by having one of its sisters, Mrs. Minerva Dunlap Scott, one of the Board of Trustees of the I. F. C. Mrs. Sophronia Naylor Grubb has been of great help and benefit to the college by her sojourn in our midst for several months past.

'53

Died at her home in St. Joseph, Mo. sometime last fall from a complication of diseases, Mrs. Mary E. Hunt Strong.

'54

Mrs. Tempe Short Perley, who has but recently returned from Paris, France, to her home in Massachusetts, has given to the public the fruits of her labor in the form of a recently published book, "From Timber to Town."

Mrs. Alvira Gage Brock during the last political campaign was an active member of the "Woman's Republican Club," of Morgan Co.

'61

Joanna Stacy of the class of "61" who for so many years has been a successful teacher in the Jacksonville city schools was employed this last year as teacher in the Meredosia schools.

'62

The class of "62" may well be proud of the fame which Mrs. Martha Capps Oliver is achieving in the literary world by the poetical productions of the earnest christian writer.

'66

Mrs. Sarah Bacon Tunnicliffe, Macomb, Ill., has been recently bereaved by the loss of her sister, Mrs. Lou Bacon Röss, who died at Mrs. Tunnicliffe's home.

'86

Miss Della Dimmit of the class of "86" from all of the beautiful things said in the papers and magazines about her recently published book, "The Story of Madeira," will not be astonished to "wake up some morning and find herself famous." She has the best wishes of her friends in her literary efforts and aspirations.

'91

Of the class of "91," doing with her might what her hands find to do is Miss Eleanor Pitner, Jacksonville, Ill., who may be found at the office of Dr. T. J. Pitner, helping to brighten and lighten the burdens of life.

Miss Helen Duncan, "91" finishes her course at the Medical College of Chicago this year and will then be a fullfledged M. D.

Although Miss Mamie Melton is home for the winter, she expects to leave soon for some foreign missionary field carrying the message of the King to the heathen.

Enrolled among the faculty of I. F. C. we find the names of Miss Gertrude Stiles, '85, Mary Dickson, '88, Phebe Kreider '90, Blanche Massie, '93 and Etta Blackburn, '94.

Of the class secretaries residing in Jacksonville, I will give the names as far as I am able. Of the class of "58" Mrs. Rebecca Wood Metcalf was made secretary; of "69," Miss Mary E. Loar; of "71," Mrs. Alice Don Carlos Vogel; "78," Miss Ida M. Lee; "91," Miss Eleanor Pitner; "92," Miss Anna M. Bronson; "94" Miss Etta Blackburn. And let me beg that the absent sisters who receive letters from class secretaries will try to overcome all "lions" that may be in the way and respond for the sake of "auld lang syne" and the pressing emergency of the case. In other words for the sake of her who has charge of this department of the "Greeting," for it is hard to make "brick without straw."

PRESIDENTS OF THE I. F. C.

1848 to 1855, Rev. James F. Jaquess. It will be interesting to the alumnae of the earlier years to know that Mr. Jaquess is still living. His address at present is Tunica, Miss. He writes very enthusiastically with regard to the college, and says that he has arranged matters so as to be here at our jubilee anniversary June 1st, and 2nd. We want especially all who graduated under him, and are still living, to be here to greet him.

1855. Rev. Sears was elected president, but declined to serve, and Rev. R. Andrus, D. D. was elected. He served one year. Dr. Andrus has a remarkable record in connection with college work. Before he himself graduated he was Principal of the Preparatory Department at McKendree College. He organized the first classes of the Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington, and acted for a while as President. In '55 and '56 he was president of the Illinois Female College. In 1866 he organized the classes of Chaddock College at Quincy, and acted as President. From 1872 to 1875 he was president of Asbury University, now De Pauw, at Greencastle, Ind., being the successor of Dr. now Bishop Bowman. In all these College positions Dr. Andrus displayed great ability, but he always preferred the regular work of the ministry, and always, as soon as possible returned to that work. He died January 17, 1887.

1856 to 1858, Rev. A. S. McCoy was president. Bro. McCoy is now living at Pueblo, Colorado. He still retains an active interest in the college, and has written expressive of his hopes for its future. We hope he may be here at the Jubilee in June. He would receive a hearty greeting.

1858 to 1868. Dr. Charles Adams was elected in 1858, and served very efficiently for ten years, resigning in 1868. He died soon afterwards. We would be glad if some one who knows will send us a brief statement of Dr. Adam's life and labors.

1868 to 1875, Dr. Wm. H. DeMotte was president, and by changes in the courses of study, and wisdom and vigor in general administration, he brought the college successfully through two fires, which occurred in these years. Dr. DeMotte is at present instructor in the Institution for the Deaf & Dumb at Indianapolis, Ind. His interest in the college is shown by the fact that his daughter, Amy, is here, a member of the present senior class. We expect Dr. DeMotte here at the Jubilee in June.

1875 to 1893. Dr. W. F. Short has the honor of the longest term in the presidency. For eighteen years he guided the affairs of the college wisely and efficiently. In 1893 Gov. Altgeld appointed him superintendent of the Institution for the Blind, which position he still holds.

About the College.

The Senior Class, now the center of Solar system of the I. F. C. is, as in years past, mighty in valor, strong in purpose. They have already conducted chapel exercises, presenting at that time a musical and literary program of merit.

Three members of the first class, that of '52, Mesdames Scott, Turley and Grubb were entertained by Pres. and Mrs. Harker at dinner and in turn Mrs. Grubb entertained the young ladies by giving them one of her sprightly and inspiring talks, "'52 to '97."

One special address to the Seniors and Juniors has been given by Prof. H. M. Hamill, subject, Christian Evidences.

A Typical Class Feast, rich in the mysteries of college lore was held this week at the home of Congressman W. H. Hinrichson, whose daughter, Miss Annie, has the honor of being the youngest member of the class of '97.

Chapel exercises are being made more entertaining by brief recitals given by members of Musical Faculty.

The crowning feature of the year thus far, socially, has been the Thanksgiving dinner at which the entire college family and a chosen few from without were the guests of Pres. and Mrs. Harker. Dainty decorations, an elaborate menu, toasts and after-dinner speeches made the occasion delightful and one long to be remembered.

To make the home life of the College ideal, Pres. and Mrs. Harker, members of the Faculty and the pupils are united in their efforts. Saturday evening "At Homes," informal receptions, impromptu entertainments of various kinds are some of the ways and means adopted.

An evening with Dr. Wm. Milburn, "Our Blind Man Eloquent," will long be remembered with pleasure by those who listened to his delightful "Reminiscences."

The College Library is rapidly becoming the pride of all. Numerous valuable additions have been received this year, prominent among them thirty-five volumes, the parting gift of Dr. J. T. McFarland, retiring pastor of Grace M. E. Church. Are there not others who can send one or more books and so increase our store?

The college colors are Blue and Yellow. How many of the "old girls" will be present to wear them commencement week in honor of the jubilee of their loved Alma Mater?

Class Colors:—

Seniors—Silver and White.

Juniors—Orange and Black.

Freshmen—Purple and White.

Sophomore—choice not made.

SOME THINGS THE COLLEGE NEEDS.

1. We need the Lurton property. The College is growing and must have more room. The Lurton property adjoins the College on the west, is 175 by 580 feet, and must be added if the College grows.

2. We need two Society Halls. The College has two as good literary societies as can be found in Illinois, the oldest women's societies in the state. They have no room in which to meet. They must have such a room.

3. We need a Gymnasium. We have been doing good work in Physical Culture for three years past, but we have been pushed from one room to another, and now have to use the chapel.

4. We need additions to our library and to our physical and chemical apparatus.

5. We need some scholarships for young women who are too poor to provide for their education but who are capable and eager for the means of study. There are many such. They would prove a great blessing if educated. One thousand dollars will provide a permanent scholarship for tuition, and five thousand dollars a permanent scholarship for board and tuition. Such an investment would be forever helping some young women to a higher and more useful life. Who will make such an investment?

6. We need gifts for an Endowment fund.

How can these needs be met? We have already made a small beginning on them. We can get all these things if our friends will remember the College. Give to it while you live, leave it some legacy when you die. If you cannot do much yourself, do a little and speak to others. Keep these matters moving.

To the Alumnae.

Dear Sisters: At our last annual meeting in June, 1896, the matter of the raising of a sum of money by the Alumnae was discussed and acted upon. The money thus contributed is to be applied to the purchase of the corner property adjoining the College on the west, and the erection thereon of a new building which will be used for the College of Music.

The year 1897 will mark the fiftieth anniversary of our loved Alma Mater and it is desirable that a special effort be made to raise a large fund. At our last meeting many subscribed generous sums to be paid at stated intervals. We now wish to urge that the entire subscription of each member who has contributed in this manner be sent us at once in all cases where it is possible, and that those who have hitherto contributed nothing will send us their subscriptions without delay. One of the smallest classes that has graduated from the college has already contributed almost one hundred dollars and it should be the ambition of each Alumna that her class be equally well represented in our new building.

Dear sisters, even though it may entail some self-denial, let us urge you, each and all, to come to the aid of our glorious and rapidly growing Alma Mater.

In the next issue of the GREETINGS, which will be in about six weeks, we will give a list of all the classes that have contributed, with the amounts given by each. We hope that by that time every class will have reported, and that a good showing will be made.

Contributions may be sent to the treasurer of the Alumnae fund, Mrs. Lillian Woods Osborne, Treasurer of the Alumnae fund, Grace Parris Buxton, Secretary of Alumnae fund.

Gifts to the College.

The best indication of the healthiness and vigor of a college is the spirit of its friends as shown by what they were willing to give to it. Judged by this standard, our college is in excellent condition. We cannot enumerate all that has been received in the past three years, but here is a list of some of them.

Subscriptions to Repair Fund, by trustees and friends	$725
From the Illinois Conference Educational Fund '93-4-5-6	1525
From Alumnae for carpets '94	40
For Laboratory and Art room	50
From Students and Friends
For Laboratory '94	160
For Reception Room '95	200
For Library Room '96	120
Additions to Library by many friends, especially Dr. & Mrs. Pitner, Judge Whitlock, Mr. W. W. Cord of Pittsburgh, Dr. J. T. McFarland, books worth about	300

Besides many other remembrances, whose value can not be estimated, but which show that we are not forgotten.

Now let every one resolve that for the Jubilee Anniversary a special effort will be made to give a Jubilee Offering.

Wanted! The P. O. Address of Rose M. Corrington now Mrs. — Albright, '77. Only this one is wanting to make the '77 list complete. Address, Mrs. Margaret DeMotte Potts, Sec. class '77, Jacksonville, Illinois.

Catalogues Wanted.

President Harker is very desirous of getting a complete file of the College Catalogue. He has all the issues except the following. Will you not at once look over your papers and see if you have a copy, and send it on at once?

We lack the catalogues of the years 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 54, 55, 59, 62, 63, 65, 67, 91. Surely somebody can find the '91 catalogue

EDITORIAL.

A distinguished authority has declared that unless one lays in early youth the solid foundation of any especial branch of knowledge, he will never acquire that knowledge with accuracy or in perfect detail.

It may be accepted as an unvarying law that mental structure takes form and color from early environment. The success or the failure of a life is so vitally dependent upon such influences that the fact should receive fullest recognition, when, it might naturally follow, every young person would be allowed the chance which early opportunities alone afford.

The ability to reckon facts at their real value, the judgment which distinguishes between the real and the meretricious, and the habit of correctly estimating matters in regard to their actual relative proportions, comes to but few except as the result of early mental training.

We are all of us like unstrung harps. There must be the preliminary tuning before the world will grant us a hearing. Even when the natural abilities are good and the mental powers vigorous, to how few comes the gift of expression!

"Alas for those who never sing,
But die with all their music in them!"

In every earnest soul there is an impulse for the expression of its higher self—but how many go through life with their finest thought unvoiced—their noblest song unsung!

It is not necessarily lack of originality or high conception which is responsible for this fatal repression—it is simply the lack of mental discipline. Too often is it due to the reprehensible neglect of those who place other interests before that highest duty of all: justice to the children for whose development parents and guardians are so gravely responsible.

THE KEY NOTE.

Whoever sings his song aright

Must catch the keynote first,

Then will the perfect strain ascend,

And into rapture burst.

And in the scale of every life

This note runs through and through—

No tones can make a perfect chord

Unless the key be true.

The secret of all high renown,

Of worth or honest fame—

What is it but the echo true

Of sure and lofty aim?

We touch the vibrant keys of soul

With spirit-finger fine,

And all the harmonies of life

Blend in a chord divine.

Each soul must set its song of life

In octave low or high.

And he whose strain is truly keyed

Shall hear it in the sky.

Whatever note our lips essay,

Whate'er the theme may be,

With listening heart and ear attent

So may we take our key!

—MARTHA CAPPS OLIVER.

Letter of Greeting From Dr. Jaquess.

TO THE ALUMNAE AND STUDENTS
OF I. F. C., FONDLY GREETING:

It seems to me now but very recently that we passed in and out of our loved College Home in mutual confidence and united effort in labors and duties the import and importance of which, to ourselves and others, we scarcely understood or fully appreciated. But for certain and many indications not by any means to be mistaken, because visible to all of us, I should perhaps, and you as well, conclude that we had only just now, so vivid are the recollections of those days, returned from a short vacation pleasantly and profitably spent among friends, and were about to resume our respective duties in the recitation room.

Since we last met, if we have met, you have had your experiences, and I have had mine, in full measure.

Many friends who knew me well in the early part of the half century you are about to celebrate, on meeting me now frequently ask me with a mischievous look, "What has become of your black head?" I sometimes make reply: "You go and attempt to control many hundred female tongues for fifteen years (Jacksonville and Quincy included), and then take command of a thousand brave, patriotic, determined soldiers, and lead them, for quite five years, into many of the hardest fought battles of the late war, and until there is scarcely a Corporal's guard left of them, and meantime be shot at, many times yourself; do this, and then come and talk to me about a black head. Your black head, in all human probability will give place to one that is white."

But I am informed that I am not the only one of the associates of the early part of the half century that has lost the dark and found the light. I am told that some of you have already attained, and that others are bravely coming after us.

Still my dear ones, I can only think of you as we were wont to greet you in former days, as "young ladies," and as such I greet you now. That you may have aged, somewhat, is but natural, but I am sure that you are still young in good works and noble deeds—and that you will never forget or be unmindful of what you owe to your dear Alma Mater, the I. F. C.

So many charming recollections cluster about our College life, that when I come to think, or speak, or write of it I find myself like the melancholy Jaques in Shakespeare, "full of matter," and very liable to forget the rules of brevity, and as I may (D. V.) stand among you, in the near future, like the last rose of summer left blooming alone, I will now say, for the present, adieu. Truly and faithfully,

Yours as ever, and forever,

JAMES F. JAQUESS.

Tunica, Miss., Mch. 11, 1897.

✻ AULD LANG SYNE ✻

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?"

We are glad to be able to give in this issue of JUBILEE GREETINGS the complete list of class secretaries: Where no other name is given the address is Jacksonville, Ill.

52.

Mrs. Margret Morrison Turley.

53.

Mrs. Hannah Stacy Ferguson,
Rich Hill, Mo.

54.

Amanda Becraft.

Mrs. Harriet Cliffe Kittell, Olney, Ill., sends "greetings to the dear old college and all its interests," and regrets that duties will prevent her attendance at the jubilee reunion in June.

Mrs. Tempe Short Perley's latest literary production, "One, Midsummer Market Day," was published in '95 in the Alton Republican as a serial. It was highly spoken of and well received, winning fresh laurels for the gifted writer.

55.

Minerva Masters Vincent, Denver, Col.

56.

Mrs. Lydia Tomlin Alkire, Pomona, Cal.

57.

Mrs. Elvira Hamilton Adams, Oak Park, Ill.

58.

Mrs. Rebecca Wood Metcalf.

An acknowledgement of the receipt of Jubilee Greetings comes from Mrs. Zerilda Meldrum Cox, from her home in Washington, Iowa.

59.

Emma Capps.

60.

Mrs. Caroline R. Hurst Phillips, New Salem, Ill.

61.

Joanna Stacy.

62.

Mrs. Rhoda Tomlin Capps.

The address of Mrs. Marietta Carson Overmire from April 1st, to November 1st, is Eureka, Lake Minnetonka. From November first to April first all letters should be addressed to her husband's office 515 Guaranty Loan B'ldg. She sends kindest regards to all friends of I. F. C., especially to those of class of 62.

From 17, Clifton St., Portland, Oregon, acknowledgements for Jubilee Greetings from Mrs. Rachel Tomlin Rankin.

63.

Mrs. Belle Paxton Drury, Orleans, Ill.

Mrs. Belle Paxton Drury, '63," expects to be present at the reunion, and would be glad to hear from all of her class who are living, especially Emma Hackney and Anna Fielding.

64.

Mary S. Pegram, Lincoln, Ill.

65.

Mrs. Jennie Kinman Ward.

66.

Mrs. Lydia Smith McKee, San Jose, Cal.

A letter written, "Under the Shadow of the Rockies," comes to Dr. Harker from Mrs. Tillie Lofton Davidson, Golden, Colorado, with "love for auld lang syne, and best wishes for future prosperity and success of Alma Mater."

Mrs. Rachel B. Seegar Wyckoff of '66," is at present with her daughter, Sarah Delia Wyckoff of '89," who is spending her second year at Johns Hopkins Medical School, Baltimore.

67.

Mrs. Nannie Reynolds Buckthorp, Jacksonville, Ill.

68.

Mrs. Mary Woods Crabtree.

Mrs. Mary Taggart McNeil, Carlinville, Ill., writes of her intention to be present at the Jubilee in June.

69.

Miss Mary E. Loar, Jacksonville.

"Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days."

We sing—not of a "storm tossed Trojan band"—but of that band of loyal, sympathizing "sisters"—to whom as "bread cast upon the waters" was sent the first issue of Jubilee Greetings—and not after many—but a few days have come the returns in the form of letters of encouragement, helpful sympathy, and gladness. And so we "sing" of desired knowledge gained. And that others may share our joy we place our light not "under a bushel" but send it forth that others may share this "light" and knowledge.

To complete the list of trustees chosen from our band of Alumnae sisters we add the names of Mrs. Rhoda Tomlin Capps of '62," Miss Mary S. Pegram, class of '64," for so many years an efficient, loved and honored instructor of the I. F. C., and Mrs. Ella M. Yates Orr, '67."

At the name of Dr. Adams I pause and fancy wings its flight back to scenes of by gone days,—the dear old chapel with its great white pillars, and Dr. Adams on the rostrum talking to the "little daughters"—dear, kind, fatherly Dr. Adams, who as most of us know has passed over the "troubled waters" to that peace and rest on the other side. A picture is reproduced of the old East Charge Methodist Church with Dr. Adams in the pulpit telling of the "Pearly Gates" and the golden streets of the New Jerusalem," which his feet were to tread some day—"some sweet day." All this brings us to reverie—and to tears.

69.

From the class of "69" the report is meager.—Mrs. Julia Taylor Courtney, Denver, Colorado, writes of her inability to be present in June other than in spirit communion.

Information concerning the whereabouts of Mrs. Belle Montgomery Igo, Mrs. Sophia Eagles Huntley and Mrs. Kate Moore Ross, will be thankfully received by Dr. Harker, Miss Etta Blackburn, Secretary of Alumnae Association, or M. E. Loar, class Secretary.

70.

Mrs. Martha Leaton Guthrie, Wichita, Kan.

71.

Mrs. Ellen DeMotte Brown.

72.

Mrs. Rachel Harris Phillippe, Mahomet, Ill.

What a pleasure it has been to read this complete and delightful class history sent by Mrs. Rachel Harris Phillippe. And when I found that Mrs. Phillippe's address was the only one of her class correctly given we thought how true it is that "will" makes the way and together with perseverance is equal to "labor" in conquering all things.

Of this class three of their number have "entered into their rest,"—Mrs. Anna Harvey Tyndall, Mrs. Carrie Marshall Michael and Miss Sarah Hendricks—Valedictorian of the class has passed to that higher life "beyond the gates." Thus homes are saddened—classes broken—and in all reverence and submission to His holy will we say, "Blessed be the tie that binds."

Mrs. Kate Detrick Willey, whose address is 3659 Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., will endeavor to be with us in June.

Mrs. Inez Gass Cutter resides at Kenilworth, a suburb of Chicago. Anna Borum Botkin is the wife of Dr. Botkin, Virden, Ill., and Mrs. Alice Botkin Bien, Los Angeles Cal., is associate editor with her husband of the Independent, a paper published in that city, while the success and progress of Miss Harriet Shinn is a source of pride and gratification to classmates and friends.

73.

Mrs. Luella B. Short Lambart.

74.

Mrs. Mary Turley Oaks, Naples, Ill.

Mrs. Samantha White Watson, 916 N. 6th St., Springfield, Ill., writes she will be glad to remember her Alma Mater substantially. A gift which will be very thankfully received at this time, as the College's present needs are urgent.

Mrs. Amanda Hamsberger Hanback, class of "74," wishes to hear from all her classmates, and holds in sweet remembrance all daughters of her Alma Mater.

The address of Miss Florence Maie Wadsworth is South Manchester, Connecticut.

75.

Miss Emma Sibert, Jacksonville.

76.

Mrs. Ella Crain Rohrer, Waverly, Ill.

77.

Mrs. Margaret DeMotte Potts.

78.

Miss Ida M. Lee, Jacksonville.

The class of "78" is honored by having a writer of no mean repute in Miss Carrie Virginia Reed, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. From a newspaper clipping we find that last year a volume of beautiful and appropriate quotations, entitled, "Daily Cheer for all the Year" was published by Miss Reed, and well received: and of her latest book, "The Way We Did at Cooking School," very complimentary things are said and written.

79.

Mrs. Nellie Springer Kinman.

From Robinson, Ill., Miss Mary Calahan sends "many thanks for Jubilee Greetings.

80.

Mrs. Ella McDonald Brackett.

81.

Mrs. Lizzie Dunlap Nixon.

82.

Mrs. Mary McElfresh Crain.

83.

Mrs. Eliza Dewees Huffaker, Berlin, Ill.

84.

Mrs. Rebecca Brown, Decatur, Ill.

85.

Miss Clara Black, Jacksonville.

The present address of Miss Eva Hewes of "85" is Institution for Blind, Jacksonville, Ill.

86.

Miss Della Dimmitt.

Miss Emma Gwinn of "86" expects to be present at the reunion in June. She writes from her home in Brocton, Ill.

87.

Mrs. Martha Layton McGhee, Hopedale, Ill.

88.

Olive Dunlap.

Miss Fannie Lowe of class of "88" writes that it is her intention to be at the "Dear Old College Home" June first and second.

Alumnae sisters, classmates and friends of Mrs. Lucy Dimmitt Kolp truly sympathize with her in her great sorrow and sad bereavement, her husband having recently died at Scranton, Pa., leaving her with two small boys to mourn his loss.

From Electra's daughters, "Electra's Chain" has come to me, and I can only give in outline the heart cheering, soul inspiring, memory awakening links. I can not help thinking how much they have gained, and how much we—the sisters—who are less fortunate in this wealth of loving memories—a class letter—have missed.

Miss Sadie Corrington writes of a happy all-around life, filled with home and social duties. And Miss Anna Simmons has found life's problems in such a happy contrast to those contained between the covers of a certain "blue backed" trigonometry. Miss Sadie Melton will soon be on the "rolling billows," en route for foreign fields of labor for the King. Miss Metella Short writes from among the mountain scenery of Colorado of her busy life as teacher from "Alpha to Algebra." Mrs. Luella Baird Baker's pen pictures of Colorado scenery, travels, social duties and housekeeping are interesting indeed. Miss Nellie Davis has once more returned to the "prairie state" and is teaching the "young idea." Miss Helen Duncan at Chicago Medical School is earnestly pursuing the studies relative to her chosen profession—medicine. Miss Mabel Seaman is another teacher of '91,' enthused with love for her class sisters and her work, especially on bright sunshiny days when "the boys do pout and wish they were out." Miss Callie Hoover is filling the dignified position of teacher in the Normal Department of the Lincoln Business College. Mrs. Sadie Buckingham Aller—teaching one wee girl to call her mamma. Mrs. Jessica Crum Phillips, only just recovering from a long and serious illness during which a "dear little girl was taken home." And last but not least the one who started the class letter of Electra's daughters as well as the new and popular class yell—"Hurrah for McKinley!"—Miss Minetta Layton. From all come a promise of a reunion in June.

What memories these letters of the "sixties" call up—our country passing through all the horrors of the civil war—altars of sacrifice all over our land! Our trials by "fire"—phoenix like, three times have we arisen from our ashes,—but even in our fiery trials has the Lord been with us. Purified by fire has our conference school grown—until looking down the dim vista of the past, from our point of view we know they "built better than they knew." All honor to the brave, self-sacrificing men into whose hearts God put the thought to build a Methodist College. "Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain who build it."

Studio Club.

This is comparatively a new organization, but is rapidly making itself at home as one of the College Societies. At a late fortnightly meeting "some notable Americans" were discussed—among them Whistler and Inness.

At another time the Club was entertained by Mrs. Harker. Mrs. Clara Hatch Stevens, Art Instructor at the Deaf and Dumb Institution, gave a delightful talk on Norway.

Society enthusiasm is not on the wane; already plans for the Commencement Open meetings are being perfected.

Other Commencement whispers are beginning to be heard. Alumnae Committees are taking up their part of the work and everything promises a most enjoyable meeting of College friends, new and old, in June.

JUBILEE GREETING.

ALMA MATER, beloved, let thy years speak for thee

In the hour of thy crowning and prime,
Let them tell the good story of those who once wrought

In that far-away, earlier time;
Voice the stern self-denial, the fostering care,
The service of labor and love,
The purpose which grew in each dedicate heart
As a thread in a pattern is wove.

Let each year be a tongue which may tell of the work

By those loyal ones nobly begun,
Of the seeds which were planted in patience and hope,

And the harvest so fruitfully won;
Of the prophecy fair which the blossoming years

Now fulfill as they open to view;
Of the far-reaching thought and the vision enlarged,

And the purpose unerring and true.
Let thy daughters come home to thy festival glad,—

Whatever their nation or clime—
Their debt still uncanceled, their pledges renewed,

Their fealty unshaken by time;
Let songs of rejoicing exultant and sweet
Ascend ever joyous and free,

And those who have labored and those who have won
Join hands in this good jubilee.

All golden the years which have crowned thee with light,

Yet farther and more shalt thou seek,—
Through far-reaching aons which beckon thee on

The voice of the Future would speak:
ALMA MATER, beloved, may it ever be thine
To widen the boundary of youth,
To wing the young spirit with strength for its flight

In the domain of knowledge and truth.
—MARTHA CAPPS OLIVER.

The Alumnae Association of the Illinois Female College

Cordially invites you to be present at their all day

Welcome Home,

Tuesday, June First,

Eighteen hundred Ninety-seven.

Banquet at One p. m.

$1.00 per plate.

R. S. V. P.

Please let Mrs. Nellie DeMotte Brown, Jacksonville, know promptly if you can accept the above invitation, as it is necessary for the Committee on Banquet to know immediately in order to complete arrangements.

Come and enjoy the day with us. Bring your best beaux and listen to the former Presidents talk, and then enjoy the banquet.

Sending out this JUBILEE GREETING to all it seemed an unnecessary expense to send separate invitations to our Alumnae meeting and we earnestly hope that each Alumna as she reads will take this invitation as to herself, and that many may come and find a true "Welcome Home" in coming.

The business meeting is at 9 a. m. Come and vote for trustees and officers. This will be followed by the general public meeting at which time we hope to hear from all our former Presidents.

Banquet at 1 p. m. to which each Alumna both Literary and Musical is invited and is privileged to bring one person as her guest. All are requested to send their R. S. V. P. to Mrs. Nellie DeMotte Brown, Jacksonville.

At 8 o'clock in the evening will occur the annual Concert by the musical Alumnae, which proved so delightful a treat last year.

Vote for Alumnae Trustees.

The Illinois Conference, at its session in 1893, adopted a resolution whereby the Alumnae Association was authorized to nominate College Trustees from its membership, nominating two each year until six were nominated, after that nominating two every second year, to serve six years. At a meeting held in June, '94, Mrs. Rhoda Tomlin Capps, '62, and Miss Mary S. Pegram, '64, were nominated, and appointed Trustees by the Conference of that year.

In June, 1895, the alumnae nominated for Trustees Mrs. Alice

JUBILEE GREETINGS.

Don Carlos Vogel, '71, and Mrs. Lillian Woods Osborne, '72, and in June '96, Mrs. Minerva Dunlap Scott, '52, and Mrs. Ella Yates Orr, '67, were the nominees of the alumnae for trustees.

At the meeting of the Alumnae in June, '96, a committee was appointed to select and submit to the Alumnae a list of names from which two Trustees are to be selected at the next meeting of the Association, and the list reported is as follows:

Mrs. Rachel Harris Phillippe, 1872
Mrs. Nellie Mathers Luce, 1880.
Mrs. Ella Crain Rohrer, 1876.
Mrs. Nellie DeMotte Brown, 1871.
Mrs. Lillie Ruddick Thompson, '77
Mrs. Mary Turley Oakes, 1874.
Miss Mary Callahan, 1879.
Mrs. Rebecca Wood Metcalf, 1858.

From the above list each Alumna should select two names and vote for them as Trustees of the college in place of Mrs. Rhoda Tomlin Capps, '62, and Miss Mary S. Pegram, '64, whose terms expire at the next session of our annual conference.

The voting will take place at the business meeting of the Alumnae which is to be held at nine o'clock on June 1st. All that can be present at that meeting will vote in person and all who cannot be present should send their votes to Miss Etta Blackburn who is the secretary of the association. It is to be hoped that there will be a great interest manifested in this matter and that the Alumnae will select as their representatives on the board women who can and will be greatly helpful in the councils of the college. This is, we all trust, the beginning of a new era of growth and prosperity for the college and the Alumnae can greatly help by selecting as members of its board of trust representatives who are earnestly and sincerely devoted to the college and who will freely give of their time for its upbuilding. We hope there will be a large and interested vote.

AULD LANG SYNE

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days o' auld lang syne?"

"And we came to Kadesh-barnea."

The last issue of JUBILEE GREETINGS for "97" is now ready for publication. Another school term will soon be numbered with the vanished years, and the class of "97" swell the ranks of the Alumnae band of I. F. C. Another class has come to "Kadesh-barnea!" Yes, the years, months, weeks, hours and minutes will soon have been numbered, the march to the "promised land" finished, the long and eagerly looked for time of "Jubilee" or emancipation have arrived! Emancipation from what? But we give to you this good word to take with you, "Remember the grapes of Eshcol." There are "giants" in the land we know,—we who have been sojourners from "52" up to the present time, but the fruits of the land are to those who faint not, upheld by the grace of the Spirit, a perpetual feast.

"And we came to Kadesh-barnea." Ah, when we recall it all—the happy care-free school girl life passed under the guidance of patient, faithful instructors, the daily intercourse with friends and classmates, and the farewell to the sheltering walls of dear Alma Mater,—"Standing with reluctant feet, Where the brook and river meet,"

"A feeling of sadness comes o'er me,
That my soul can not resist:—
A feeling of sadness and longing
That is not akin to pain,
And resembles sorrow only
As the mist resembles rain."

"54"

Dr. Harker recently received a communication from Mrs. Tempe Short Perley, "54," regretting her inability to write a history of I. F. C. during the period of her student life there.

"55"

The following from I. F. C. items in Jacksonville Journal will disclose the nature of a letter recently received from Mrs. Louisa Thompson Bergen, of Topeka, Kansas. She sends kindly greeting to all her friends and encloses a check for the improvement fund of the college.

We hail this growing interest of the Alumnae of I. F. C. with thanksgiving.

We will endeavor to furnish Mrs. Bergen as much information concerning friends and classmates as may be in our possession. Mrs. Martha Spalding Jumper resides at Sinclair, Illinois. Elvira Gage of "54" is the wife of Prof. M. L. Brock, Jacksonville, Ill., and Mrs. Mary Clampt Merine is a widow, living in Kausas City, Mo.

"65"

Mrs. Jennie Kinman Ward, class secretary of "65" sends the anxious inquiry for the address of her classmates, Miss Mary Flint, and Miss O. Emma Thomas.

"66"

We are in receipt of acknowledgements from Mrs. Lydia Smith McKee, secretary of class of "66" and the present living addresses of all living members of said class, except that of Mrs. Elizabeth McFarland Kelley, the letter sent to her address, Atchinson, Kansas, being returned to her. Will any one who knows kindly furnish Mrs. McKee with the desired address.

"69"

The address of Mrs. Martha Palmer Russel is 919 South 36th St., Omaha, Neb.

"74"

Mrs. Mary Turley Oaks of "74" writes of her interest in JUBILEE GREETINGS, and reports her class as far as able, the "missing links" being the Misses Bass, Harmon, English and Yule. Will, or can any of our alumnae complete the chain of "74" by furnishing information concerning whereabouts of these ladies.

"66"

Class sisters and friends sympathize with Mrs. Ella Keplinger Smith in the bereavement by her daughter's death. The "Great Physician" touched her and she was made whole.

"78"

It makes us glad to receive such letters of appreciation as come to us from Mrs. May Humphrey Painter, "78" and Mrs. Ada Reat Barr, "92" relative to JUBILEE GREETINGS, and we feel that the "day of small things is not to be despised." And we may not tell what the end of our little paper may be, or the good it may yet accomplish for our Alma Mater.

"87"

From Mrs. Martha Layton McGee, a class report, together with her acknowledgements of receipt of JUBILEE GREETING. She expects to be present at the Reunion in June. Her present address is Hopedale, Ill., her husband being pastor of the M. E. church at that place.

"90"

We see by the paper that the entertainment given April 22, at Beardstown Ill., by Miss Phoebe Kreider, "90" teacher of vocal culture, and Miss Jennie Farley, teacher of elocution and physical culture in I. F. C., was a decided success.

"91"

Honors.

Three in one week have been showered upon one of our number, each the result of diligence and careful application. Miss Helen M. Duncan, class of '91, who has just completed a four years' course in the study of medicine, lately competed with a large class of other aspirants for honors, three times in one week, and each time was the successful one. The places competed for were first a place in Cook County Hospital, second in the Illinois, third in Wesleyan, the successful competitor is entitled to eighteen months' hospital practice. Both Yale and Harvard were represented in the contest, and no little credit is due Miss Duncan for winning the honors for our own I. F. C. We heartily congratulate her.

"92"

Mrs. Ada Reat Barr, from her home in Kansas, Ill., writes of her enjoyment of JUBILEE GREETINGS and the pleasure she would derive from attending our June Reunion, but the care of a little "Marjory," who has the honor of being the first heiress of class of "92" will prevent. She is also desirous of obtaining the address of Daisy Stewart, "93," Mary Abrams and Annie Kimber, "92."

Annie E. Kimber, 1916 Madison Ave, Newport, will be at Waverly all summer.

"95"

Miss Grace Belle Ward who has been a student the past year at Ann Arbor, Michigan, will soon be home for her summer vacation.

Yes, "think of the I. F. C. like a lion couchant pawing in the tulips of the old Lurton place." And with our faith founded upon the rock upon which our worthy president Dr. Harker has founded his, we hope to soon be able to erect among the old tulip beds, a noble structure devoted to the best interests of "our girls" and the growing needs of our Alma Mater, a Conservatory of Music, School of Art and Elocution. With patience we wait, with hope and faith we look forward to the future, and with this strong triple lever we hope to remove all mountains of difficulties which may be in the way, knowing that patience like faith removes mountains, but the greatest of all is faith, the lever which moves the world.

Ladies of the Alumnae Association or friends of the College who can furnish either cut flowers or potted plants to aid in the decorating of the Banquet Room are cordially invited to make the fact known to one of the following committee and receive their thanks

Mrs. Judge Scott,
Miss Gertrude Stiles,
Miss Mayme Henry,
Miss C. M. Layman,
Miss Anna Bronson.

SOME THINGS WE NEED.

1. We need the Lurton property. The College is growing and must have more room. The Lurton property adjoins the College on the west, is 175 by 580 feet, and must be added if the College grows.

2. We need two Society Halls. The College has two as good literary societies as can be found in Illinois, the oldest woman's societies in the state. They have no room to meet in.

3. We need a gymnasium. We have been doing good work in Physical Culture for three years past, but we have been pushed from one room to another, and now have to use the chapel.

4. We need additions to our library and to our physical and chemical apparatus.

5. We need some scholarships for young women who are too poor to provide for their education but who are capable and eager for the means of study. One thousand dollars will provide a permanent scholarship for tuition, and five thousand dollars a permanent scholarship for board and tuition. Who will make such an investment?

6. We need gifts for an endowment fund.

How can these needs be met? We have already made a small beginning on them. We can get all these things if our friends will remember the College. Give to it while you live, leave it some legacy when you die. Keep these matters moving?

Friends will do the College a favor by sending names of young women who expect to attend some college next year.

In the first number of the Greetings we promised to give a list of the classes that have contributed to the Jubilee Offering Fund, and the amounts subscribed by each. It is proposed to raise $5000 by getting 500 shares of $10 each. By making a special effort at this special time every one can take one share, and some can take more. The above amount will easily be reached if every one will do a little. If you have not yet responded be sure to do so by June 1. Here is the list so far:

1852, not reported; 7 living.

1853, not reported; 5 living.

1854, $5 from one member; 14 members living.

1855, $5 from one member; 14 members living.

1894, $7 from three members, 23 living members.

1895, $22 from four members, 20 living members.

1896, not reported, 10 living.

Total amount already reported $639 from 44 members. With 500 members yet to hear from it ought to be easy to raise the amount needed. Have you subscribed yet. If not, we hope you will arrange to do so before June 1st. The roll of classes will be called at that time, and we hope to have every class and every living member represented by a contribution. Make a special effort at the Jubilee time, and let each one give at least one share. Send to Mrs. S. D. Osborne, Jacksonville, Ill., Treasurer of Alumnae Fund
